

Scripts for Leaving Messages to Invite Guests to Events

Hello, _____ this is _____ with Mary Kay I am so sorry I missed you. I am so excited! We are going to have the most fun event on Monday. We are having a girl's night out on Monday night at 6:30. And guess what you are going to get to try the NEW Microdermabrasion. Your skin is going to feel like silk. We are going to have food and you are going to get a special gift just for coming. You are going to be around the most positive and wonderful women. You are going to love it. I am going to love showing you off as my facial model. But if not, Thursday night we are going to have Extreme Makeovers and that is fun too because we do the facial without the Microdermabrasion. And we do full color – the works. Oh my goodness you are going to have a blast. Let me know which event works best for you so I can save you a seat because it is by reservation only. And by the way if you bring a couple of friends over the age of 18 who do not have a consultant, guess what, I am going to give you $75 in products for $35. Whoo Hooo!! So, I cannot wait to hear from you. I would love so much to give you first choice. I am just so impressed with you – you are a doll! Please give me a call. If you miss me please leave me the best time that I can call you back so we can get together. I can't wait to pamper you. Thank you so much! Have a great evening!
