

Resign Former Consultant Script:

Call the past consultant who you enjoyed working with and miss having in your unit.

Hey __ its __ do you have just a quick minute? Why I am giving you a call today is that I just got back from Leadership Conference and I thought of you. The Company is doing a really huge promotion this month and it's to honor everyone who has helped make our Company great through the years. And even though you are no longer a consultant and haven't been for several years, the Company is doing a Welcome Back Promotion to honor all the people who are former consultants and are part of our Companies success. Our Company has just had a record breaking year, a 4% growth over the year before and it's doing amazing things. They just wanted the honor the people that helped us make us great.

And so I thought of you and I know some things in your life have probably changed. So __ I just wondered if you have ever given any thought to making some extra money and letting me show you how to really work this business again.

(Then she just listens to the person and asks questions.)

Then explain promotion details and free product.
